

Grief Support Resource Guide

The following grief support resources have been compiled for you by the Bereavement Ministry of St. Thomas More Parish in Henderson, NV. There are many groups available in the surrounding area, and we have tried to list them in an easy-to-follow format.

The groups have been categorized into General Loss, Loss of a Spouse, Loss of a Child, Loss Following a Murder and Loss following a Suicide, Teen Support and Children's Support), Scripture Readings, Suggested Readings and Internet Websites.

Since group dynamics vary from group-to-group depending upon the facilitator, participants and material, we suggest that you experience several of the groups before deciding which group you will journey with. Please call ahead for all of the groups to make sure that the information has not changed since the time of this printing.

St. Thomas More will host a 13-week support group in the Spring and Fall of each year. Please look for announcements in our bulletin, as well as on our website (www.stmlv.org) for exact dates and times. Additional copies of this Resource Guide are available for download on the St. Thomas More website.

Should you know of a source that you would like to suggest be added to our list, or have any corrections to make in our research, please let us know. We would like to keep our listing as up-to-date as possible. These groups change often, so please phone ahead to make sure they are still viable.

Please let us know if our Bereavement Ministry can further assist you! You may contact either of our

Bereavement Co-coordinators:

Liz (702) 328-2261 or Eileen (702) 818-3446

*God Bless you on your journey of healing.
Above all, remember that God is always with you.*
